Description

Are you looking for a laptop bag that is both beautiful and eco-friendly? Then the KOZO bags in RPET recycled material are perfect for you. RPET stands for recycled polyethylene terephthalate, a material made from old plastic bottles. By using RPET you contribute to reducing the amount of plastic that ends up in the landfill or in the ocean. KOZO bags have a Scandinavian design that suits both work and student life. They are light and spacious, with a padded compartment for your laptop and various pockets for your accessories. In the compartment for the computer there is an elastic band that tightens with velcro, to ensure that the computer stays in place. Use easily by carrying it in the handle on the bag or if you prefer to use the shoulder strap that is so long, that the computer can rest on your back when you for example cycle.

On the back of the bag there is a band adapted to the cabin bag's handle. Easy and practical to be able to pull both the cabin bag and the laptop bag on top. On the front there is a compartment with a zipper.

Choose between two classic colors: Olive and Charcoal. The fabric is durable and resistant. Easy to wipe away any stains with a damp cloth.

KOZO laptop bags fit almost all computers, up to 15.6
